Student Finance Explained

Check out our student finance explained film for everything you need to know before our applications open!

Supporting an application?

If you'll be supporting your child or partner's student finance full-time undergraduate application for 2022 to 2023, the service is expected to open from March 2022. Encourage students to sign up to our mailing list on The Student Room and we'll email them to let them know when applications are open.

If you're still supporting an application for 2021 to 2022, explore our latest guidance on how to support an application right first time.
