

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

Kent & Medway Collaborative Outreach Programme

www.kmpf.org

Structure of the Partnership

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

KMPF is a long-standing partnership between:

- Three universities in Kent & Medway (Canterbury Christ Church University, the University of Kent, and the University for the Creative Arts)
- Over 40 secondary schools and academies
- Within KMPF sits Kent and Medway Collaborative Outreach Programme (KaMCOP)

Together we aim to raise the attainment and aspirations of less advantaged young people in Kent and Medway who may not otherwise consider Higher Education (HE).

Structure of the partnership since NCOP

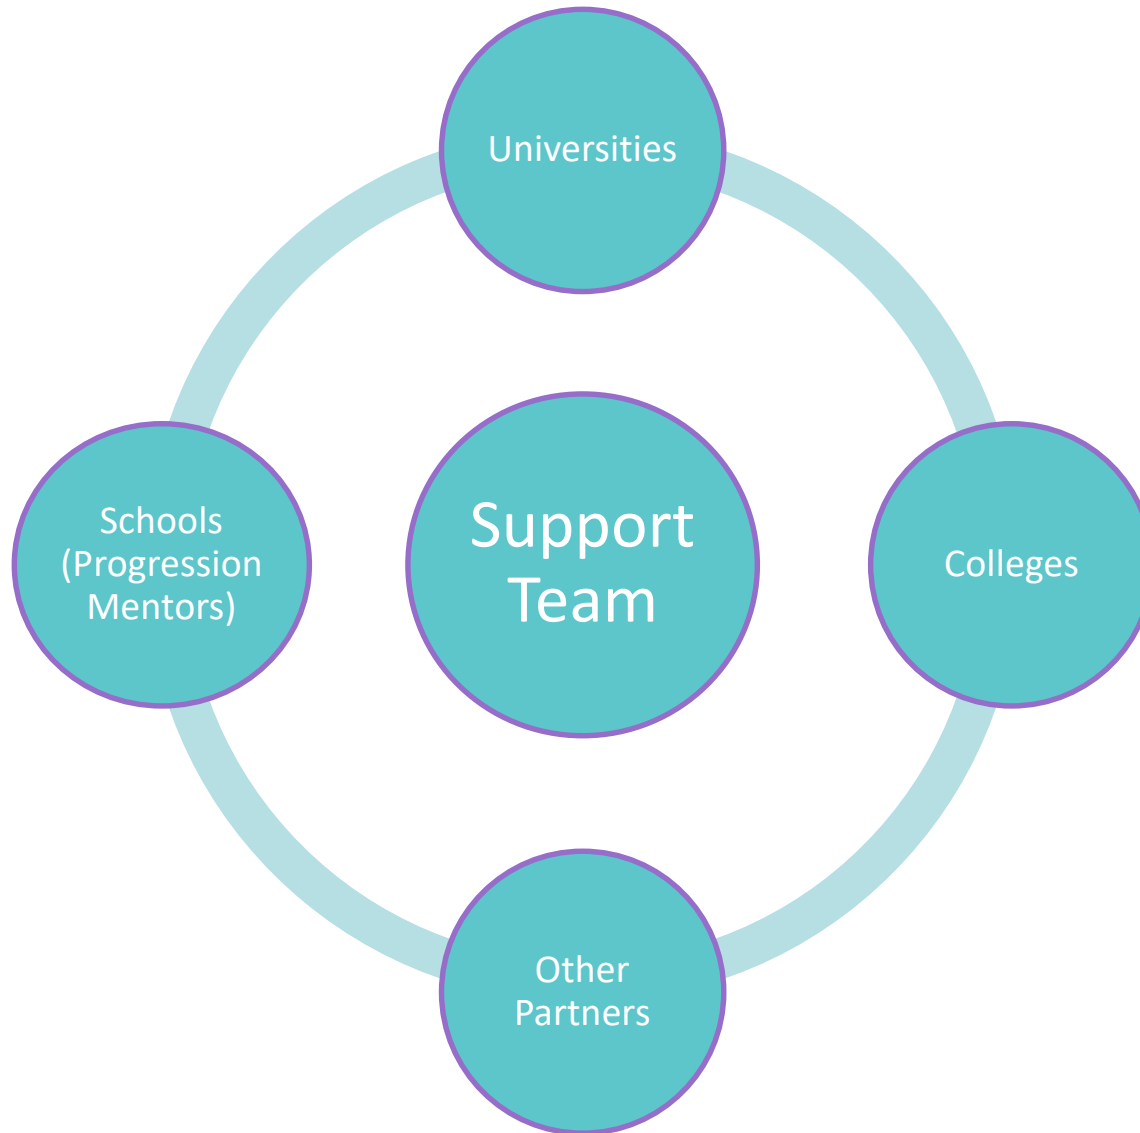

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

KMPF
KENT & MEDWAY
PROGRESSION
FEDERATION

Benefits of a Centralised Support Team

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

Benefits

- Neutrality
- Encourages honest feedback
- Engaging nationally
- Effective communication channel
- Opportunities for universities to share best practice and streamline processes for the benefit of schools.
- Keeping up to date by attending regional CEIAG meetings
- Connections with Careers Enterprise Company
- Administer school transport funding.
- Website maintenance

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

- Working at all levels from strategic to operational.
- Headteacher representation.
- Regular one to one meetings with Progression Mentors in school
- Collaborative Planning Sessions
- Bespoke work on an individual school basis or, where appropriate, working across schools in an academy trust
- Bi-annual Partnership Summit meetings
- Tailored Newsletters

Target Setting and Impact

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

- Headteacher involvement when setting collaborative targets across the Federation.
- KaMCOP and KaMCOP Dashboard.
- Data collected and evaluated, with results fed back annually to schools to assist Ofsted reporting.
 - Personalised Annual Delivery Reports for each school.
 - Easy to read personalised infographics delivery leaflet.
- Annual presentation to schools to demonstrate the impact of our work.

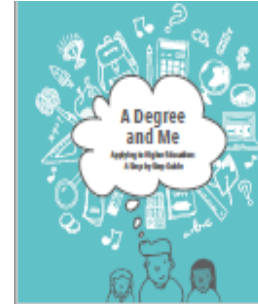

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

KMPF Guides for Schools

Guide for Schools

A Degree and Me
Applying to Higher
Education: A Step-by-Step
Guide

Guide for Governors

Applying for Higher Education
A Guide for Staff

Guide for Building a
Progression Framework

Applying for University-
level Education:
A Guide for Parents and Carers

The Building Bricks of Successful Working Relationships with Schools

‘It is the long history of mankind (and animal kind, too) that those who learned to collaborate and improvise most effectively have prevailed.’

(Charles Darwin ‘Expression of the emotions in man and animals’)

@KMPFederation

Kent and Medway Progression Federation (KMPF)

Hall Place Enterprise Centre, Harbledown, Canterbury, Kent CT2 9AG

T: 01227 922565

E: office@kmpf.org

www.kmpf.org