

Supporting our most vulnerable students

Anne-Marie Henderson

Specialist Student Advisor

anne-marie.henderson@kcl.ac.uk

Jack Mollart-Solity

Widening Participation Officer

jack.mollart-solity@kcl.ac.uk

Why

- Brightest students
- Most under-represented
- More to balance than most
- Student body expectations

Who

Care-experienced

Students who have spent any time in local authority care

Estranged

Students who have no or limited communicative relationship with their parents

Forced Migrants

Refugees; Asylum Seekers; Limited Leave

Key Themes

Personalised

Working one to one

Partnerships

Internal and external partnerships

Awareness

Making others more aware

Pre-entry

- Designated Advisor
- Support with course choice
- Personal statement feedback
- Interview support

Additional support at King's College London

We offer additional support to potential applicants and current King's students who are:

Care-experienced www.kcl.ac.uk/care-experienced

If you have spent any time in local authority care

Estranged www.kcl.ac.uk/estranged

If you have no communicative relationship with your biological parents

Forced Migrants www.kcl.ac.uk/forced-migrants

The following immigration backgrounds: asylum seeker, refugee, humanitarian protection, limited leave to remain and unaccompanied asylum seeking child

Information for estranged students

All you need to know to apply to King's when you do not have family support

Admissions

- Contextualised admissions
- Verification process
- Review meetings

On course

- Priority within existing support systems
- Designated adviser
- Financial Support
- Awareness of Support

Challenges

- Vocabulary and issues of self-identity
- Traditional and inflexible internal systems
- Specialist needs

Any questions?

Anne-Marie Henderson
Specialist Student Advisor
anne-marie.henderson@kcl.ac.uk

Jack Mollart-Solity
Widening Participation Officer
jack.mollart-solity@kcl.ac.uk

